Chapter 1 by Ilosz

The room was covered with darkness. A terrible noise came from somewhere of the deepest parts of the room. What on earth could cause such a terrible sound? Alexis was still far but couldn't move her legs as she sensed something circling around her, but couldn't hear anything.

Chapter 2 by Mia

There was a smell, kind of sweet but sour at the end. It made Alexis head hurt.

"Like it?" a voice near her left side, faintly touching her cheek was something sticky. As was the voice, sticky but sweet.

"I don't like to frighten my guests, but newcomers often like to not see what's down here."

Alexis did want to see, but there was something in that sweetening voice that maybe was good not to see.

Chapter 3 by jade

Against her better judgement, she slowly pressed forward.

"A-and how's t-that? "

She had meant it to come off as sarcasm and bravery. But her voice betrayed her to show just how much he intimidated her. He chuckled and the sticky substance removed itself from her face. Slow chilling relief cycles through her as the creature takes a step back. But doesn't last long as the sticky sweet voice starts to swirl around, as the creature slowly circles her once again.

"Brave are we??"

He chuckles.

"And what makes you so? You like no other female that has entered this place. You act as if u could conquer the world?"

He chuckles again. Circling once more he says. Right in front of Alexis.

"But please let me tell u th
